Orff-Schulwerk: You Gotta Love It!

Children learn best when they love what they're doing, and what's more joyful than Orff Schulwerk? This thematic workshop offers kid-tested activities for each grade level including songs and games that children love, we love, and hopefully you'll love too!

Tuesday, June 19th, 2012:
Orff Schulwerk Under Construction

This workshop examines the idea of construction in the music classroom; specifically how we design activities, build lessons, and develop performances. Participants will experience kid-tested activities appropriate for students in kindergarten through fifth grade.

Both are active workshop presenters throughout the United States and Canada. Randy and Jeff have made contributions to the McGraw-Hill, Silver Burdett, and Warner Brothers textbook series. They have co-authored 13 publications and recently completed work on GAMEPLAN: An Active Music Curriculum for Children (kindergarten through grade five).
